Violation of any federal, state, or local law, regulation, or ordinance.

Sanctions

The parties agree to the following sanctions for the above violations of the Code:

Written Reprimand. A disciplinary record for this matter will be reportable until the Respondent graduates from Cornell University.

Deferred Suspension. Respondent will be on deferred suspension status until he graduates from Cornell University. At the conclusion of the fall 2025 academic semester, the Respondent may request OSCCS to review and determine whether circumstances have changed such that a shorter period of deferred suspension is warranted. Deferred Suspension means for a designated period of time, that is until the Respondent graduates, the Respondent must demonstrate the ability to abide by the Student Code of Conduct. If the Respondent is found to be responsible for any subsequent violation of the Code related or similar in nature to the violations detailed above, occurring on or before they graduate, a two-semester suspension from the university will be imposed in addition to any other sanctions or remedies imposed to address the subsequent violation. Failure to comply with any of the terms of the Alternate Resolution would violate Section IV. H of the Code and constitute a subsequent violation of the Code related or similar in nature to the violations detailed above, activating the deferred suspension.

Restrictive Measures. Effective immediately and continuing until the last day of the spring 2025 semester (May 27, 2025), the Respondent is prohibited from physically entering Cornell's Ithaca campus with the following exceptions:

- The Respondent is permitted on campus for religious services from 1:15-2:00pm ET on Fridays at Anabel Taylor Hall.
- The Respondent is also permitted to be on campus for any scheduled or emergency in-person health appointments at Cornell Health.
- The Respondent may access Cornell sidewalks and pathways in order to access approved campus locations.
- The Respondent may access the Africana Studies library for legitimate academic purposes only, including and limited to:
 - Research, writing, and studying for academic program-related work
 - Utilizing and picking up physical resources checked out on Cornell's library website.
 - The Respondent is prohibited from accessing the Africana Studies library to host or attend social events hosted at the Africana Studies library.

All privilege restrictions will be lifted effective the last day of the spring 2025 semester (May 27, 2025).
